Boone, IA– October 16, 2007 – Keep Boone County Beautiful was recently awarded the most "Outstanding Beautification Program" by the Iowa Society of Solid Waste Operations (ISOSWO). The September 2006 "Dragoon River Romp," a water-based recreation and litter collection program along the Des Moines River, was sponsored by this affiliate and 19 other organizations. The one-day event resulted in the recovery of 6.4 tons of waste, of which 63 percent was recycled.
