Des Moines, IA– October 1, 2007 – More than $31,000 was netted at Keep Iowa Beautiful's premier Albaugh-Lamberti Golf Classic on September 12th at Talons of Tuscany in Ankeny. Funds will support litter and illegal dumping prevention and community enhancement programs.

Dennis Albaugh donated the use of his private golf course located at Albaugh, Inc.'s world headquarters for the fundraising event. Fourteen tee sponsors, 22 volunteers and 105 golfers enjoyed a sunny day out on the course and touring Mr. Albaugh's "car barn" that houses his private collection of nearly every Chevrolet convertible made. A "hole-in-one" prize of a two-year lease on a 2007 Chevy Impala was donated by Karl Chevrolet of Ankeny.

Breakfast was donated by the Ankeny Hy-Vee and Anderson Erickson Dairy Company. Pop and water were donated by Atlantic Bottling Company. Ice sculptures for the evening reception and ice were donated by Arctic Glacier. Casey's General Stores donated four, $100 gift cards for a random drawing; winners were Kent Harrell of Waste Management, Inc., Tim Cooney of City Carton, Tom Drauer of Barker Lemar, and Jim Gordino of Fareway Corp.
